¹ Data also reflect professional and technical services.

² Insurance exports are defined as the difference between premiums received from foreign policy-holders and claims collected by foreign policy-holders.

³ Not a meaningful number.

⁵ Due to rounding or suppression of individual company data, figures may not add to totals shown.
